

QUILT MADE WITH LOVE

Beautifully hand-made BARGELLO pattern quilt with blue flowers. Made with love by the University of Michigan Faculty Women's Quilting Group. Twin Size.

Have you heard of a bargello quilt? It is a stunning work of quilting art that's full of motion. Waves, curves and other shapes move gracefully across the quilt top.

VALUE: $150

MOTAWI BLUE JAY

Motawi Tileworks Blue Jay, 4"x8" by William Joseph "Dard" Hunter (1883-1966) was primarily devoted to the study of papermaking. His designs for the Roycroft community in East Aurora, New York, helped define the Arts & Crafts movement in America.

VALUE: $60

Painting by CARTER SCOTT of Ann Arbor

VALUE: $500

SPLENDOR OF GALLUP PARK

Framed black and white photo art of the bridge at Gallup Park by Dennis Maloney.

VALUE: $300

COLORFUL DRAWING BY KAIYA HAMILTON

“don't be afraid to learn new things because you never know how it could inspire you to make something you never knew you could, which in turn may inspire, encourage, or liberate someone else.” Kaiya Hamilton

VALUE: $25

Stacey
FINE ART & DESIGN
STACEY BURMEISTER GINGRAS ©

Stacey Burmeister Gingras is an artist whose reputation grows with her ability to transform delicate pencil sketches into startlingly realistic images of the animals she portrays. Her eye for technical detail, including conformation features, captures characteristics usually caught only by a photograph.

VALUE: $250